

In the Supreme Court of the State of Alaska

Lee E Baker Jr.,

Appellant,

v.

Kenneth Duffus,

Appellee.

Trial Court Case No. 3AN-07-08461CI

Supreme Court No. S-17457

Order

Stay Appellate Proceedings

Date of Order: 9/13/19

Appellant has filed a motion to stay all deadlines in this appeal. Appellant's reason is that "the issue on appeal may be rendered moot by subsequent proceedings in the superior court. Appellee opposes. The motion is DENIED. If subsequent superior court proceedings moot the issue(s) in this appeal, Appellants may file a motion, a dismissal, or some other notice. But the possibility that other superior court proceedings may moot this appeal is not extraordinary cause to indefinitely stay the deadlines in the face of opposition by the appellee.

Entered by direction of an individual justice.
